RYLEY'S STORY

Every year, thousands of Golden Retrievers are surrendered to shelters and rescue groups when their families no longer want them or are unable to care for them. Those are the lucky ones. Hundreds more are discarded on the side of the road to fend for themselves or die trying. This was Ryley's plight, but it also marked the beginning of his second chance for life.

On May 23, 2006, Ryley wandered into a woman's backyard in Florida, alone, and looking near death. She rushed him to the local animal hospital to see if they could save this Golden boy's life.

The animal hospital staff contacted Emerald Coast Golden Retriever Rescue Inc. located in the Florida Panhandle to see if they would be willing to accept Ryley into their rescue and cover the medical expenses to save him. Without hesitation, the rescue volunteers told the hospital they would accept him and gave full permission to pursue any and all medical treatment regardless of cost.

With the help of a nationwide plea, donations began to come in to help cover his medical bills. Four weeks after being brought to the hospital, Ryley was released into the care of the rescue volunteers who placed him into a loving foster home. His recovery from the neglect took another five months of continuing medical treatment for heartworm, mange, ear and eye infections.

Ryley is not the only Golden that ends up in this condition every year. Cruelty to animals is a nationwide epidemic that must be stopped.

Ryley's Run was established in Albany, New York to help with Ryley's medical expenses. Ryley's story is one with a happy ending, as he is healthy and thriving in his new home. The spirit of his story lives on in Ryley's Run, which will help the thousands of abused and abandoned dogs in need.

RYLEY'S RUN 2007, benefiting local rescue organizations around the country, will be held in multiple locations:

Albany, New York
Sacramento, California
St. Louis, Missouri (2008)
Anchorage, Alaska (2008)
New Hampshire/Maine (2008)
South Carolina (2008)
North Carolina (2008)

Homeward Bound Golden Retriever Rescue

Homeward Bound Golden Retriever Rescue & Sanctuary, Inc. is a local non-profit, all volunteer rescue organization dedicated to securing safe, loving homes for displaced or homeless Golden Retrievers. The organization receives Golden Retrievers from owners who can no longer care for them because of changing circumstances in their lives. We maintain close working relationships with animal shelters to ensure that Goldens are relinquished to us instead of being euthanized at the shelter. We also rescue Golden Retrievers found wandering the streets or reported to us by concerned neighbors. Homeward Bound rescues Goldens of all ages and medical conditions.

Homeward Bound will share the profits of Ryley's Run with other non-profit dog rescue groups in the Sacramento area.
