The popular Wine Wall returns, newly expanded with wines from some of Northern California's best boutique wineries, including sparkling selections to compliment our theme. We think you'll enjoy the creative presentation; you may want to "paws" before unwrapping them.

Our "Dancing 2013" raffle will present an array of fun items, including art by the amazing Debbie Claussen, and a dog item from Oprah's "Favorites" list.

Our silent auction will have a wider variety and larger quantity of items, more dog baskets, and more short getaway opportunities to San Francisco, the Napa Valley, and the California Coast. Premium wines, as well as lots of opportunities to tour and taste with friends at wonderful wineries in several local wine regions, will also be up for grabs.

Check out the "Glam Bag Grab Bags" this year. For just $20 you'll get one of a large selection of great prizes. We are sure you will be pleased when you join in the fun.

We're adding a book signing to the event this year. Co-authors of the book Marilyn, Joe & Me, June DiMaggio and Mary Jane Popp, will attend to sign copies of their book. In Marilyn, Joe & Me, June DiMaggio, the 90 year old niece of baseball great Joe DiMaggio and close friend to Marilyn Monroe tells all with Mary Jane. Together they pull back the Hollywood curtain to tell stories of the legendary stars with recollections and research that expose their real-life stories

For the first time at our event we'll be offering you the opportunity to experience iSnap; a state-of-the-art high-tech photo booth where you can take fun photos with your friends and post them directly to social media or send them to yourself for a memento.

At 8:00 P.M. the Napa Valley branch of the Canine Freestyle Federation will perform a demonstration of their amazing "dog dancing" skills just to the left of our main stage. They will even work with an untrained representative from Homeward Bound just for fun. This demonstration has to be performed on the museum floor and there will be limited space for viewing.

A short program will begin at 8:15, followed by our live auction which will delight with some very "approachable" prizes as well as well as fabulous get-aways, including a trip to Ireland! Among the offerings will be a magnum of Cabernet Sauvignon from Anomaly, St. Helena, a boutique Napa Valley Winery. We're fortunate to have another magnum of "Scouts Honor," a red blend created by the winemaker at Venge Vineyards in loving memory of their winery dog Scout. We are excited to offer a beautiful Debbie Claussen Art giclee of a watercolor called "Rubber Ducky," which depicts a precious dog rescued by Homeward Bound. The giclee has been beautifully framed by Tom Head of Abreu Gallery. We'll also be offering lunch for you and your friends with the winemaker at a family winery and several short stays as well as longer vacation opportunities.

Our special live auction item this year is "Kennel Krashers," an opportunity to help fund Homeward Bound's next big need. The kennel facilities at our adoption center and sanctuary are in urgent need of upgrade and repair. This project will include new flooring, sound mitigation, refurbishing and reinforcing of wall materials, repair of kennel

Can You Help?

 Since its inception in 2000, HBGRR has rescued over 7,300 dogs. The remnants of economic hard times are still with us, continuing to create financial challenges for rescues. Our resources are stretched ever thinner due to rising veterinary expenses. More dog owners are surrendering their dogs because they cannot afford the cost of treatment for serious medical conditions. Homeward Bound stands ready to help every Golden that enters our care, regardless of the severity of their medical condition. Your help is more important than ever.

- If you can join us as a sponsor, please purchase your desired sponsorship level on our website, www.hbgrr.org. If you have questions about sponsoring, contact Noreen Tesolin at noreen@homewardboundgoldens.org.
